In Loving Memory of My Wife
Louise Price

This day I do remember a loving thought I give
To the one no longer with me but in my heart still lives
I remember the night I met her, the day God made her mine
I remember the day I lost her and will until the end of time
We made our vows together and said til death do us part
So when God came and took you, my whole world fell apart
She gave me years of happiness, then came sorrow and tears
But she left me beautiful memories, I will treasure through the years.

With Love , Spencer

In Loving Memory of Robert (Bobby) Stewart,
Who passed away on April 1, 2014

Of all the special gifts in Life,
However great or small
To have you as our son,
Was the greatest gift of all
A special time, a special face
A special son, we can't replace
With aching hearts we whisper low
We miss you son, and love you so

Love Always, Mom & Dad, Billy, Barry, Jenny & Families

In loving memory of my dear sweet wife
Frances Stewart who passed away April 10, 2013

Gone, dear wife; gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place
A happy home we once enjoyed
How sweet the memory still
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill
Always loved and dearly missed by husband Todd

In loving memory of my dear mother,
Frances Stewart, who passed away
April 10, 2013

Her smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall,
She had a kindly word for each
And she died beloved by all
Some day we hope to meet her
Some day we know not when
To clasp her hand in the better land
Never to part again
Always remembered and loved by Daughter Paulette

In loving memory of my dear sweet mother,
Frances Stewart who passed away
April 10, 2013

No one knows how much we miss you
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered since we lost you
Life has never been the same
In our hearts your memory lingers
Sweetly tender, fond and true
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you

Always remembered & loved by Nilah and Tom

In loving memory of my dear sweet mother,
Frances Stewart who passed away April 10, 2013

What would we give her hand to clasp
Her patient face to see
To hear her voice, to see her smile
As in the days that used to be
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife
And clasp each other's hand once more
In Heaven, that happy life

Always remembered by Eileen and Bob

In Loving Memory of my dear mother, Frances Stewart,
who passed away on April 10, 2013

No one knows how much I miss you, No one knows the bitter pain

I have suffered since I lost you, Life has never been the same

In my heart your memory lingers, Sweetly tender, fond and true

There is not a day dear Mother, That I do not think of You.

Loved and sadly missed by daughter Mary

In Memory of a Wonderful Boss and a Dear Friend Wallace (Wally) O'Donnell

The heat of summer is not so bad
When the power is on to cool our pad
When storms roll in and the power goes out

The Lineman is called without a doubt
He goes into the stormy hot weather
To complete the job so we feel better

Though the lightning is flashing right by his side

He climbs that pole with all his pride
He listens to the thunder rumble
As he works his miracles so humble
If he is lucky the job is small
And won't take much time at all
But then again you never know
Could be hours and hours to go

Then comes that magic moment when power is restored

And once again the Lineman is ignored

I know you ask how can this be
Daily they risk their life for you and me
We don't ask or think about how the job is done
All we want is our power to run

These men go out in all types of weather
Day or night just so we can live better
The dangers and risks of the job are high
Some get hurt, or crippled, some men die

So when you see these men out along side of the road
Respect them because the job is a heavy load
Long hours, bad weather, and high voltage too
Not many could begin to fill their shoes

If you think their pay is too high
Walk a day in their shoes, and give it a try
See if you can shimmy up a pole
Or even stay up 24 hours or so
Grab hold of those high voltage lines
Facing the weather elements of that time
Leave your family all hours of the day
Wondering if you will be home in time to watch your children play

Their families worry daily while they are at work
Knowing the risks are high and don't want them hurt
I say these thing and know they're true
I am a lineman and know what our families go through

Remembered Always
J. C. Boulay

In Loving Memory of our Mom, Louise M Price,
who passed away on April 26, 2011

We know you are listening from heaven above,
An Angel Watching over us sending down her love
No matter where we are, no matter what we do
You are in our hearts forever Mom and we will always Love you too

The Family of the late Linda M Munn would like to express our gratitude to each and every one for their kindness, generosity, love and support during this difficult time in our lives.

We are grateful to all those who provided meals and sent food to the hospital during her stay and to our homes after her passing. Thank you to all who visited, called, messaged and sent cards.

To those who organized, helped out at, donated to, attended and left cards at Moms benefit, Thank you!

To Dr. Wood (and staff at the Boiestown Health Center) and to the Ambulance Attendants, thank you for your care and kindness!

Thank you to Bro Decker for the beautiful service to honour Linda, and to he and Sis Decker for their support during and after Linda's illness. Thank you to the congregation of the Holtville Church for the lovely lunch they provided after the service.

The help we received at this time has been overwhelming and we are forever grateful.

Sincerely, Robert, Bobby, Carla and Family

ANGLOPHONE RIGHTS ASSOCIATION of NEW BRUNSWICK

Protecting Our Future

Who Are We?

The Anglophone Rights Association of New Brunswick (ARANB) is a registered non-profit organization established to bring a sense of linguistic fairness and harmony for all citizens of the Province of New Brunswick.

What Is Our Goal?

We aspire to create a province where all citizens can expect to obtain employment, advance in employment and live cohesively together without language being a barrier.

How Do We Accomplish That?

- 1) Begin an open dialogue where barriers to a productive and harmonious province can be removed.
- 2) Develop policies to ensure a level playing field for all to obtain employment and opportunity for advancement.
- 3) Promote a system that includes all citizens of New Brunswick and does not allow any group of people to feel left out or under represented.

By incorporating these basic guidelines, we will be able to move forward as united communities within this great province that we proudly call home. For more information and to become a member contact us at:
